QUEST

Our Pathway to the Catholic Faith

Quest is the name we've given to an ancient process. Within our St. Bernard of Clairvaux community, it's the process of learning about the Catholic faith, experiencing a conversion of heart, and being welcomed into the faith by receiving the sacraments. In Quest we follow the Rites of the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA). Quest is an exciting and dynamic way to assist people on their journey towards Jesus and into our beautiful faith tradition.

Are you interested in the Catholic faith?
Do you want to receive the Sacraments?
Have you been away from the faith for too long and want to get reacquainted with Jesus Christ and find out exactly what the Church is all about? Are you seeking the Truth and looking for deeper meaning in your life?

Quest is your pathway and your answer for all of the previous questions. We meet most Sundays from 9-10:30am, in room #205 of the Parish Center. During our gatherings, there is time for prayer and reflection and friendly discussion, all focused on a specific teaching of the Church that is presented.

It is a year-round process because new people are seeking to join us week after week. When God starts to move in their lives, we are ready to walk with them and assist them along the way. Each new person, just like all of us, is at a different place in their faith journey and each of them has a unique history and has heard God's voice in some very personal way.

The LORD is good to those who wait for him,
to the soul that seeks him.
