A MESSAGE FROM FR. FRED

Dear Parishioners,

As of Sunday, March 17 – we are 33 days into our Lenten journey. More than halfway to Holy Week and Easter. For those of you who have been praying the 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory it is the day we complete and make our consecration as individuals. As a parish – Fr. Ryan and I will consecrate the community on Holy Thursday in the parish Garden of Repose at 9:00pm. Everyone is welcome to join us in the garden (parish hall) as we pray and keep watch with our Lord on Holy Thursday Eve. Last year I prayed in the actual Garden of Gethsemane – it is a night I will never forget. Many of the olive trees in the garden are thought to be off shoots of the trees from the time of Jesus. To sit in that same place and soak it all in under an almost full moon was a gift.

The journey of Eucharistic Renewal continues and I am pleased we have Michael John Poirier here at the Masses this weekend as well as him being present for an Evening of Eucharistic Prayer - Holy Hour for Families on Wednesday, March 20th in the Church from 6:45 – 7:45pm. He will lead us in prayer and song to help us deepen our journey with the Eucharistic Lord. I encourage you to make time for this with your family. If you have never been to a Eucharistic Holy Hour allow the Lord to welcome you to be with him and the community. Graces and healing always flow from our time with Him. It is late for young people but can be a beautiful way to end the night as a family and prepare for Holy Week and the celebration of Easter. More information is in the Lenten centerfold of the bulletin.

We are now in the Passiontide with the image of the Crucified Lord covered as well as the statues in the Church. We are keeping the lights lowered in Church between Masses and playing Benedictine Lenten chant music to help create a place of quiet for you to enter as we prepare for the Lord's passion. Please try to honor the quiet allowing fellow parishioners time for prayer before and after Mass.

Look ahead and plan to join us for the liturgies of Holy Week. They are always special and help us to grow deeper in the virtues of faith, hope and love. Take time from the busyness of life to be quiet with the Lord as we meditate on His passion, death and resurrection that give new meaning to our lives.

United in prayer as we head into this special time – the true High Holy Days of our Catholic faith.

Lenten peace and joy,

Fr. Fred

P.S. Saint Patrick's Day blessings to the Irish and those who wish they were on this special day.

May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul
A Thank You letter from the Parishioners of
St. Martin de Porres

Thanks for all your support of our Christmas Angel Tree program this past December. This program provides gifts to children in our parish, as well as children in three inner city parishes. The letter of thanks we received from St. Martin de Porres shows how much your generosity means to all our beneficiaries.

thank you

"We at St. Martin de Porres conference cannot thank you enough for your generous donations of the many gift cards and gifts, and for making our annual Toy Drive for our children possible. The gifts you provided made their Christmas brighter at a time when everything around them may not be so bright.

There is no question 2023 was a tough year for most families. While some families weathered the storm, many were hit hard with loss of jobs, illness, higher food and/or utility costs due to the economy. Their stories are tough to hear, but thanks to your generosity, gifts for Christmas were one less thing the had to worry about.

We are so Grateful for your support of our families in our conference."

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

On Good Friday, the Catholic Church throughout the world takes up a very special collection—the "Collection for the Holy Land." This special collection originated from the Popes' wishes to maintain a strong bond between the Holy Places of the Holy Land and all Christians of the world. It is the main source of sustenance for life around the Holy Places through many activities of solidarity such as maintenance of pastoral, educational, welfare, health and social structures.

Please support the needs of the Holy Land.

Thank you.

An Evening Of Eucharistic Prayer

Come be with Jesus and fellow disciples as we gather in Adoration of our Eucharistic Lord.

Wednesday, March 20th, 2024, 6:45 - 7:45

Prayer will be led by Michael John Poirier, Catholic husband, father and man of prayer. He will lead us in song and testimony to open our hearts and minds to the love of Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist.

For years, Michael John Poirier has wrapped his prayers in songs, presenting them as gifts to listeners and to God. He began singing publicly at age 14 when he joined a folk group at his church. By the age of 21, music became his full-time profession. For the next seven years, Michael struggled to know what God was calling him to do with his life. He lived the life of a troubadour, giving away most of his belongings and traveling with a backpack and guitar. He played in bars and restaurants for five years until he could no longer ignore an inner call to return to prayer. He put those prayers to music and soon recorded his first album titled, "Hello Lord".

In 1994, Michael and his wife Mary were married, dedicating their marriage and family life to helping encourage families to be strong through prayer and the sacraments. They have 3 grown children and now, as 'empty nesters' plan to continue their apostolate as long as God allows.

Michael's music speaks of forgiveness, peace, and love. In 1993, he began offering candlelight prayer concerts at parishes' nationwide—evenings of healing through music and storytelling. Michael uses his artistic talents to create atmospheres where people can easily picture God telling them how much they are cherished.
