A MESSAGE FROM FR. FRED

Dear Parishioners,

We enter into Holy Week with the reading of the Passion of our Lord. It begins on Palm Sunday with a reminder of the triumphant entrance of Jesus into the Holy City of Jerusalem that quickly turns into His trial, suffering and death on a cross. But not to be the end, rather a new beginning as He conquers sin, evil, death on the cross and gives us new life in the empty tomb. These are our High Holy Days because everything comes to fruition in what we call the Paschal Mystery – the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus. This is our Holy Week!

We give thanks to God for the days that lie ahead to renew us and save us in His new covenant of love celebrated in the Last Supper, poured out for us on the Cross and born anew in the Resurrection. For this reason Fr. Ryan and I invite and encourage you to be part of the days that lie ahead. To be with Jesus and the community as we enter into the mystery of living a life in Christ. Each day is unique but must be experienced as one saving action. The Cross we venerate has no value without the Resurrection and the empty tomb. His gift of the Eucharist in the Last Supper, His trial and suffering, His death and time in the tomb, and His resurrection are a package deal for Jesus and for us. It is what brings meaning to suffering, forgiveness of sins, peace to struggles and New Life in Him. So come be with Him this week:

Holy Thursday at 7:00 pm – the Mass of the Lords Supper. The day we as Catholics celebrate the institution of the Eucharist, the Priesthood and the call to service. I will wash the feet of representatives of our parish community as a witness of service, we will celebrate with reverence the great gift of the New Covenant in the Eucharist and then process with our Lord to the Garden of Repose to sit with Him like the disciples in the Garden of Gethsemane. Remembering the Lord's invitation to sit with Him. At 9:00 pm Fr. Ryan and I, along with those who choose to be present will consecrate the parish to our Eucharistic Lord. The vigil of prayer with the Lord will continue until 11:00 pm when we will repose the Lord in preparation for Good Friday..... the altar is stripped bare and the tabernacle lies empty.

Good Friday. A deep day of entering into the suffering of our Lord's Passion. The Church lights will be kept dim and the altar remains bare. Stations of the Cross will be celebrated at 12:00 noon. This devotion helps us to remember our Lords' Way of the Cross – His deep love for us revealed in the Glory of the Cross. At 3:00 pm we will gather for the Passion of the Lord and distribution of Holy Communion, reserved from the previous night as no Mass is celebrated until Easter. This is a day of fasting and abstinence – a time for us to give thanks to God by our attention, time and presence.

Holy Saturday. Is a day of somber waiting in a spirit of expectation. At 9:00 am we will celebrate the Seven Sorrows of Our Blessed Mother. A time to gather and remember her sorrowful heart and unite the sufferings and sorrows of our lives and others. At 1:00 pm we will have the traditional blessing of the Easter food and treats in baskets. At 7:00 pm will gather after the sun has set in the courtyard of the our parish to light the Easter fire and enter into the Great Easter Vigil with a darkened Church that is lit only with the light of the Paschal Candle until the singing of the Gloria when the lights of the Church are lit celebrating the light that has overcome the darkness. What a joyous three days the Lord takes us on to renew us and save us. He is Risen from the dead and Satan no longer as power over those who cling to His saving love in the Paschal Mystery.

Easter Sunday will be a busy day – with lots of guests. Remember to gracious and hospitable – grateful to God that something has touched each of us... to remember His saving love on Easter. Masses will be at 7:00 am, 9:00 am and 11:00 am in the Church with additional Masses in the hall at 9:15 am and 11:15 am. Parking will be crazy – extra parking will be at the High School just up the street with shuttle buses running but also just a short walk north of the parish.

Again – take time this week to enter into the mystery of His love. Do not let it simply pass by like another week but embrace the gift of these High Holy Days – a Holy Week. Renew us and Save us, O' Lord.

Continued Lenten prayers and blessings,

Fr. Fred

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Regarding the grace of Divine Mercy Sunday, Jesus told St. Faustina, "The soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (Diary 699)

(Jesus)... "The feast of Divine Mercy emerged from my very depths of tenderness (139). It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the First Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy." (Diary 699)

The Divine Mercy Novena begins on Good Friday, March 29, 2024. Novena pamphlets are available now at all Church entrances and exits.

Reconciliation:
Wednesdays: 5:00-6:00pm
Saturdays: 3:30-4:30pm

Please join us on Sunday, April 7th at 3:00pm for a beautiful celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday. We will begin with the "Three O'clock Prayer", then Mass (fulfills Sunday obligation) followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet and prayers concluding with Eucharistic Procession and Benediction.

The Divine Mercy Prayer Group meets every Wednesday at 6:00pm in the Church, with Mass also celebrated on every first Wednesday of each month. All are invited to join us.

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

On Good Friday, the Catholic Church throughout the world takes up a very special collection—the "Collection for the Holy Land." This special collection originated from the Popes' wishes to maintain a strong bond between the Holy Places of the Holy Land and all Christians of the world. It is the main source of sustenance for life around the Holy Places through many activities of solidarity such as maintenance of pastoral, educational, welfare, health and social structures.

Please support the needs of the Holy Land.

Thank you.

The Sacred Paschal Triduum

“What, really, do the liturgies of the triduum celebrate? Most all of us believe we know the answer. We assume that Thursday commemorates the day Jesus instituted the eucharist; Friday commemorates the day he was executed on the cross; and the vigil commemorates his emergence from the tomb. We assume, further, that the liturgies of these days are dramatic ‘reenactments’ of events—by turns touching, tragic and triumphant—which happened during Jesus’ last days and culminated in his victory over death. We assume, in other words, that the paschal triduum is simply springtime’s parallel to winter’s Christmas. As it gathers on these days, the liturgical assembly is often thought to be engaged in acts of historical ‘reconstruction’ that recreate scenes in the ‘upper room,’ on Calvary, and at the tomb. People are encouraged to imagine they are ‘actually present’ at these events—comforting Jesus during his fearful watch in Gethsemane, walking with him along the via crucis, and witnessing his miraculous ‘return to life’ on Easter morning. This view may frequently be reinforced by popular hymns that focus on the ‘historical facts’ of the celebration.

But is ‘history’ the central focus of celebration during the Triduum? Certainly, the early Christian creeds anchored belief in the historical, this-worldly circumstances that accompanied Jesus’ suffering and crucifixion ‘under Pontius Pilate.’ Jesus’ life, career and death were, in other words, attached to a specific time, in a specific place. His proclamation of God’s arrival in the present moment (God’s ‘reign’), his bold challenge to understand God in and as one’s neighbor, his rejection of ‘religion’ as a means of social or political control—all this took place not in some cosmic cloud of unknowing but in a remote province of the later Roman Empire at a time of sociopolitical transition.

Precisely because these faith-anchoring events are historical, however, they cannot be repeated or ‘reenacted.’ That is why the church’s long tradition insists that what happened once in history passes over into the mystery of the assembly’s liturgical/sacramental celebrations. What the paschal triduum actually celebrates is mystery, not history; anamnesis, not mimesis. The liturgies of these days do not ‘take us back’ to the upper room or the path to Calvary. Their ultimate purpose is not to retrace or relive the last hours of Jesus’ life—nor to catch sight of him emerging from the tomb at Easter’s dawning. They celebrate not what once happened to Jesus but what is now happening among us as a people called to conversion, gathered in faith, and gifted with the Spirit of holiness. They celebrate God’s taking possession of our hearts at their deepest core, recreating us as a new human community broken like bread for the world’s life—a community rich in compassion, steadfast in hope, and fearless in the search for justice and peace.”

ScottsdaleAZ.gov search "senior-expo"

Scottsdale to host its annual "All Things Senior" Expo and Tradeshow on March 1. Every year, Scottsdale Senior Services brings together an extensive collection of exhibitors who provide products, resources and valuable services to the 50+ community with an "All Things Senior" Expo and Tradeshow. If you are looking for information about healthcare, senior housing, municipal services, recreation, technology, transportation or entertainment, the "All Things Senior" Expo and Tradeshow will provide lasting connections to help enhance your quality of life. The FREE event will take place on Wednesday, March 1 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts (7308 E Second Street). In addition to a wide variety of resources, the event features free health screenings and educational opportunities. This year Seniors can also attend four 30 minute educational presentations throughout the event located in the small auditorium starting at 10 a.m. Exhibitor spots are still available! Submit an application today if you are interested in sharing your senior-focused products and services at the EXPO. This FREE event is possible thanks to the city of Scottsdale, the sponsor McDowell Village Senior Living, executive sponsor Loving Life after 50 and event sponsors Parent Projects and Cochlear. Visit ScottsdaleAZ.gov, search "Senior EXPO" or call 480-312-1719 to learn more.
