Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith or becoming Catholic?

We invite you to find out about Jesus, the Church He founded, and the meaning and purpose only found in Him.

Join us for an OCIA Inquirers meeting Sunday, August 25, 2024, at 9-10am, in room 101, in the parish hall. Anyone interested in receiving the sacraments, or if you've been away and want to learn more about the faith, please attend.

Journey through Loss

An 8-week Grief Support program in the parish will begin on Tuesday, September 10th, from 9-10:30am, in room 101 in the Parish Hall.

Grief is a universal yet deeply personal and isolating experience. Don't suffer alone. We provide a safe space for listening and learning coping strategies, as well as sharing experiences and expressing feelings. This will be a facilitated program that can aid in the healing process.

Everyone experiencing loss is welcome to attend. Call Deacon Phil or Christi Austin at 480-661-9843 for more information.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. FRED

Dear Parishioners,

“Amen, Amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you.” John 6:53

Eating flesh and drinking blood was unimaginable for the Jewish people and if we are honest, even unimaginable for us. But Jesus is very intentional and strong in His words about the Bread of Life. As Catholics, we take this to truly mean that He gives us his flesh and blood in the Holy Eucharist. It is hard to imagine that God loves us so much that he wishes to share His divine life with us by feeding us with the one who saves us, Jesus.

At Mass, what appears to be bread and wine is substantially changed to His Body and Blood. It is called transubstantiation because it is the very substance that changes. The appearance (or accidents) remain the same - it looks and tastes like bread and wine. God, who creates all things and gives them substance, there very essence, is the only one who can make that change. God, Jesus, when He takes bread and says this is my body and then takes wine and says this is my blood - the bread and wine obey. It is forever changed – it is substantially changed forever. We receive the fullness of all that Jesus is as Savior. He shares his very divine nature. From previous weeks, we remember that His abundance and providential gift of grace is given to us to feed our deepest hunger and quench our thirst.

This is God’s plan for His people who remain on the journey to the Promised Land. He provides us with food for the journey so we can be nourished and strengthened in His divine power. Every time we enter into the Mass, we enter into the embrace of God who loves us, saves us, feeds us and sends us forth with the power of the Holy Spirit to be ambassadors of His love. We are disciples of Word and Sacrament. Called to live and be what we receive.

Remember every time you receive Holy Communion, you receive God who longs to be one with you. He is not distant or aloof, but rather is close and desires intimacy with you. He is your Savior, friend and companion. Say Yes to Jesus in the Eucharist.

Amen!

This Tuesday, August 20th, is our parish Feast Day - Saint Bernard of Clairvaux. A French noble who became a monk and established numerous Cistercian Monasteries to spread God’s love and teach the richness of our Catholic Faith. His love for our Blessed Mother and Holy Scripture has provided the Church with a treasury of writings that help us in our faith. The centerfold of the bulletin has several quotes to pray with and, hopefully give you strength. He is a doctor of the Church and one we look to for wisdom and knowledge. A favorite quote of mine from him is, “There are those who seek knowledge for the sake of knowledge; that is curiosity. There are those who seek knowledge to be known by others; that is vanity. There are those who seek knowledge in order to serve; that is Love”. In that same spirit, may we all grow in the wisdom and knowledge of God in order to better serve and love. Feast Day Blessings.

Peace in Jesus,

Fr. Fred

Elementary Faith Formation News K-8th Grade

Registration for Faith Formation for all Kindergarten through Eighth Grade students will be held after all masses the week end of August 10th/11th and August 17th/18th. You may also register in the parish office after August 12th.

We are excited to introduce a new series this year. The parish will be teaming up with “Formed” from Augustine Institute and their “Word of Life” series. This is an interactive program and through your free access to “Formed”, as a registered parishioner, you will be able to work with the catechists in forming your children’s faith and preparing them to receive their sacraments. “Formed” will offer many Adult Formation opportunities, too!

All Elementary classes, Kindergarten through the Eighth Grade, will be offered on Tuesday’s or Thursday’s after school and early evening. Classes will begin the week of September 9th.

The parish is the preeminent place for the catechesis of adults, youth and children. We are here to assist parents who are the primary educators in the faith for their children. Formal catechesis at St. Bernard’s begins in Kindergarten. In this diocese, preparation for the Sacrament of First Reconciliation takes place in Second Grade and Confirmation and First Eucharist in Third Grade. All children beyond the third grade, who are in need of Confirmation, should enroll in their grade level class for preparation.

Our “Heritage” classes are for children, Third through Eighth Grade, baptized or unbaptized, who have missed preparing for the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist at the younger ages. We also offer Liturgy of the Word at the 9am Mass on Sunday. There is no registration for this.

It is important to remember that I cannot do this alone, so I am asking parishioners of all ages to please pray about becoming a catechist. All training and materials will be provided for you and there are many grade levels to choose from. Please call me at 480-661-9843 ext. 314 or email me at kstine@stboc.org if you are interested in sharing faith with God’s children or for more information on all of our programs.

You will find a schedule of days and times of classes, a calendar for the year and more detailed information about Faith Formation for your children on our website at www.stboc.org.

I look forward to meeting our new families and welcoming back everyone as we begin another year of raising the children in the faith together!

Blessing

FORMED

Learn – Grow – Be Formed

Learn – Grow – Be Formed is our new call as a parish to learn more about Jesus and the Church, to grow in our faith and be formed in the Word of God and our Catholic traditions.

We are now part of the Augustine Institutes FORMED subscription service, which is a collection of Catholic content and teachings that will help us on our faith journey as individuals and a community.

During the next few weeks we will be sharing and encouraging you to watch a video on the gift of the Eucharist, Bread of Life, connected to our Sunday readings. These are all less than ten minutes in length and offer insight.

We have link on our web-page with instruction on how to sign up. It is really easy to gain access to all of FORMED's content, follow these simple steps:

- Go to signup.formed.org/
- Enter our parish's zip code 85259
- Enter your name and your email address

That's it! You will be in. You can get the free FORMED app for your phone by searching FORMED Catholic in your app store. We will be sharing more information the next few weeks to keep us engaged and growing in our Faith.

Quotes by Saint Bernard of Clairvaux

Feast Day August 20th

The more I contemplate God, the more God looks at me. The more I pray to Him, the more He thinks of me too.

The measure of love is love without measure.

How good and pleasant it is to dwell in the Heart of Jesus! Who is there who does not love a heart so wounded? Who can refuse a return of love to a heart so loving?

Under the influence of fear, we bear the Cross of Christ with patience. Under the more inspiring influence of hope, we carry the Cross with a firm and valiant heart. But under the consuming power of charity, we embrace the cross with ardor.

We find rest in those we love, and we provide a resting place for those who love us.

Who loves me, loves my dog

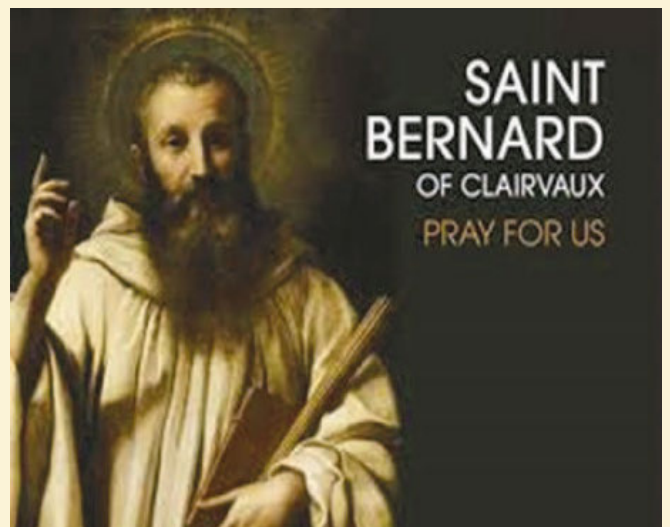

Love is sufficient of itself, it gives pleasure by itself. It is its own merit, its own reward. Love looks for no cause outside itself, no effect beyond itself. Its profit lies in the practice. Of all the movements, sensations and feelings of the soul, love is the only one in which the creature can respond to the Creator and make some sort of similar return however unequal though it be. For when God loves, all he desires is to be loved in return. The sole purpose of his love is to be loved, in the knowledge that those who love him are made happy by their love of him.

The monk who observes others instead of attending to himself will begin before long to see some as his superiors and others as his inferiors; in some he will see things to envy, in others, things to despise. The eyes have wandered and the mind soon follows.

You will find something more in the woods, than in books. Trees and stones will teach you that which you can never learn from masters.

Jesus, what made you so small? Love

What we love, we shall grow to resemble

HUMAN SERVICES Cochlear McDowell Village Lovin' Life PARENT PRODUCTS CITY OF SCOTTSDALE

Scottsdale to host its annual "All Things Senior" EXPO and Tradeshow on March 1. Every year, Scottsdale Senior Services brings together an extensive collection of exhibitors who provide products, resources and valuable services to the 50+ community with an "All Things" Senior EXPO and Tradeshow. If you are looking for information about healthcare, senior housing, municipal services, recreation, technology, transportation or entertainment, the "All Things Senior" Expo and Tradeshow will provide lasting connections to help enhance your quality of life. The FREE event will take place on Wednesday, March 1 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts (7308 E Second Street). In addition to a wide variety of resources, the event features free health screenings and educational opportunities. This year Seniors can also attend four 30 minute educational presentations throughout the event located in the small auditorium starting at 10 a.m. Exhibitor spots are still available! Submit an application today if you are interested in sharing your senior-focused products and services at the EXPO. This FREE event is possible thanks to the city of Scottsdale. The sponsor McDowell Village Senior Living, executive sponsor Lovin' Life after 50 and event sponsors Parent Products and Cochlear. Visit ScottsdaleAZ.gov, search "Senior EXPO" or call 480-312-1719 to learn more.
