A MESSAGE FROM FR. FRED

Dear Parishioners,

Truth, beauty and goodness are considered transcendentals, which means they are deep properties of being, present in all things created by God. As humans, we long for all three to help bring meaning and connection to our lives. Truth is objective and we must search for it in a world that often embraces subjective truth. Beauty draws us in – nature, architecture, art and human life. Goodness, too, is something that we are drawn to and want to share – think of a good book, kind act, or movie. They touch us and give us a sense of gratitude. All of them help us better understand God.

Today, in the Gospel, people are doing good in the name of Jesus – driving out demons. Because they were not His official followers, the disciples are puzzled by it and try to prevent them. Jesus helps them and us to realize that helping others through acts of charity and kindness is always good. We should rejoice in it. We should celebrate all that is good. I am convinced that the role of the Christian is to learn to seek and find the good in the world, but also truth and beauty.

Of course, in our day, just like in the times of Jesus, there are individuals and movements that live out of a spirit of suspicion and can focus only on the bad, weakness and ugliness in the world. While these things are real and no doubt exist, the Christian calling is to be the light of truth, beauty and goodness shining in the world. To be anything else leads people into confusion, fear, division and suspicion. We are bombarded in today's world with these messages and must continually look for the signs of God's goodness, beauty and truth. We strive to be people of gratitude, hope and light. Be attentive this week to find something good in your day – give thanks to God. Be a witness of goodness. Live your faith boldly in love.

This coming Friday, October 4th, is the Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi and we will have the blessing of animals at 6pm in our courtyard. We have a beautiful statue of Francis surrounded by animals so we will gather there to pray and bless our furry, feathered, and scaly pets. Of course, all pets must be good natured on leashes or in protective enclosures. It is a wonderful way of recognizing how Saint Francis saw the beauty and goodness in God's creatures. Let us bless and give thanks to God for the companionship and joy our pets bring.

On Saturday evening, October 5th, after the 5pm Mass we will have a wine and cheese gathering to visit and socialize with the people we pray with every Saturday evening. It is the Saturday evening version of coffee and donuts. Please stop by and enjoy one another's company.

Be sure to check the centerfold page of the bulletin for the many opportunities for growing in our Catholic faith. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to worship, learn and serve. Thank you for embracing and living your faith.

Peace in Him,

Fr. Fred

Catholic Cemeteries & Funeral Homes

Church Teaching on Catholic Funerals, Cremation and Burials

Preplanning your Catholic funeral and burial is one of the greatest gifts you can give to your loved ones. We can help guide you and your family in a way that honors the rich traditions and spiritual foundations of our Catholic faith.

Information tables will be set up outside after the 7:30am, 9:00am and 11:00am Masses on Sunday, September 29th. Please stop by for a complimentary information booklet.

You are invited to attend a special session to discuss the importance of a Catholic funeral and burial on Thursday, October 3rd, after the 9:00am Mass in the Parish Hall coffee shop.

Refreshments will be provided.

Scottsdale to host its annual "All Things Senior" EXPO and Tradeshow on March 1. Every year, Scottsdale Senior Services brings together an extensive collection of exhibitors who provide products, resources and valuable services to the 50+ community with an "All Things" Senior EXPO and Tradeshow. If you are looking for information about healthcare, senior housing, municipal services, recreation, technology, transportation or entertainment, the "All Things Senior" Expo & Tradeshow will provide lasting connections to help enhance your quality of life. The FREE event will take place on Wednesday, March 1 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts (7308 E Second Street). In addition to a wide variety of resources, the event features free health screenings and educational opportunities. This year Seniors can also attend four 30 minute educational presentations throughout the event located in the small auditorium starting at 10 a.m. Exhibitor spots are still available! Submit an application today if you are interested in sharing your senior-focused products and services at the EXPO. This FREE event is possible thanks to the city of Scottsdale, the sponsor McDowell Village Senior Living, executive sponsor Lovin' Life after 50 and event sponsors Parent Projects and Cochlear. Visit ScottsdaleAZ.gov, search "Senior EXPO" or call 480-312-1719 to learn more.
