MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

Tuesday, October 22, 2024
7:00 PM

All those who have lost loved ones in the last year, and anyone who wants to remember and honor their deceased loved ones are invited to a special Mass of Remembrance.

Please bring photos of those you want to remember for display on tables in the Narthex. All those honored will receive a special blessing.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. FRED

Dear Parishioners,

The Gospel reading from Mark is one of my favorites that I think provides good insight into the spiritual life and our growing relationship with God. The man who approaches Jesus possesses a deep desire for happiness in everlasting life, he is following all the commands, but something is missing. Jesus recognizes this and invites him to sell all he has, give to the poor and follow him. The man walks away sad because he is possessed by his possessions – they are what he thinks brings him happiness. He is not willing to take the next step by letting go. Surrender and trust are key in the Christian journey.

The man's name is not mentioned and I think this is intentional as he could be any of us. Often we are living a clean life, practicing our faith but we reach a plateau in our spiritual growth. We aren't necessarily unhappy or committing any major sin, but feel a bit stuck. Maybe Jesus is inviting us to take the next step in surrender and trust. What might He be asking us to let go of that is possessing our time and attention? Maybe it is possessions or things, perhaps it putting down the cell phone, could it be letting go of anger or hatred towards someone? When we are moved to let go, it is important to fill that time or space with service to the poor and needy. Maybe that is the first step – start by giving generously of yourself, serving the poor helps us to us see the plight of those in need and allows us to then let go of what we think makes us happy.

The last thing I ponder in this Gospel is that we never know if this person returns to Jesus? Does he walk through the rest of his life sad and stuck? The story is left untold because it is our story. May the invitation Jesus gives this man be the same invitation extended to each one of us. May we all listen to and respond to the invitation to let go of any worldly things that possess us and His words, "Come, follow me."

This weekend I am in Salt Lake City for the annual meeting of the Western Lieutenancy of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. We are blessed to have Five Knights and Four Dames from the Order in our parish. This a Papal Order whose purpose is to pray and support the Christians in the Holy Land. This means the very regions that are wrought with conflict and senseless killing. We in the Order have, over the years, established many close connections with the Christians in the various places in Israel, the West Bank and Jordan. We hear firsthand the stories of the pain and suffering in a land they so deeply love. I am the retreat master for all new investees, of which there will be 59 new Knights and Dames invested this year. All given a unique call and connection to the Holy Land. Please pray for peace and an end to the Israel-Hamas War.

This coming Wednesday, we invite you to be part of a special evening of prayer for peace in our Country, State, City, homes and families. We will carry Jesus, present in the Blessed Sacrament, out into our courtyard for an Hour of Adoration under the stars. Praying under the beauty of the night sky and remembering the goodness of God's creation. Most importantly, recalling the mystery of the saving love of the King of Peace – Jesus - who humbles himself to become man and gift himself in the Real Presence of the Eucharist for people for all ages. It is a time for us to slow down and place our total trust in Him.

Peace in Him,

Fr. Fred

"Together in Christ"

Over the next few weeks, you will be hearing about the upcoming "Together in Christ" Program at St. Bernard of Clairvaux Parish. This effort is very important as we move forward with the mission and vision of St. Bernard of Clairvaux Parish. We, as a parish family, have changed so many lives in our community! In order to continue our mission and ministries, we encourage all parishioners to spend time in prayer and discussion with your family reflecting on the work we do. Our special Commitment Weekend will be celebrated on November 9 & 10th. If you have any questions regarding the "Together in Christ" Program, please feel free to contact the parish office.

Thank you

from Society of St. Vincent de Paul Collection

The Vincentians of St. Bernard of Clairvaux would like to thank you, our dear parishioners, for your generous financial support in last month's fifth Sunday collection. Your continuing support is critical for our ministry to those in need, especially the summer months. We Thank you!

We also received several full boxes of toiletries which we were able to distribute for many of the Mesa Cooling Center, and the needy of St. Matthew's Parish. We feel very blessed. Thank you for making that possible.

Adoration under the Stars

on Wednesday, October 16th

from 6:30 pm until 7:30 pm

following the Divine Mercy Devotions in the Church

Together we will process with the Blessed Sacrament to our Courtyard under the stars to spend time with the Lord in prayer and song. Ending with Benediction – being blessed by the Eucharistic presence of Jesus.

Bring a blanket or folding camp chair to sit on – we will have plastic chairs available as well. Families bring your children and introduce them to the beauty of God presence in the Holy Eucharist under the stars of His creation. We will dedicate this time of prayer for peace and unity in our World, Country, City and State.

Catholic Considerations for Our Earthly Passing

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/end-of-life-considerations.

We prepare for eternal life by choosing to love and follow God. Our journey with Christ includes equipping our consciences to make morally good judgments at the end of life. While no summary can substitute for thorough catechesis, one thing is clear: we are entrusted by God with the gift of life. This obliges us to make use of appropriate, effective medical care. The Church affirms the inviolable dignity of every person, regardless of the duration or extent of the person's incapacity. Nothing diminishes the sanctity of a person's life, or the obligation to protect and care for it. Those who are sick should not be alone, and, even after death, accompaniment continues by praying for those who have passed.

We are entrusted by God with the gift of life.
